VOTING BY MAIL

- Voting by mail, voting absentee, voting from home, all mean the same thing: your ballot will be mailed directly to you. It is your right.
- Voting by mail is safe and secure.
- You have to fill out an absentee ballot application to receive a mailed ballot. Once your application is received, your ballot will be mailed to you.
- Once you receive a mailed ballot, return it as soon as you can!
- Remember to check or update your signature before returning your ballot and sign and date the back!

IN-PERSON VOTING

- You can vote early in-person at any early voting location in your county.
- If you vote on Election Day, November 3, 2020, plan to vote at your polling location between 7 am and 7 pm.
- Whether you vote early or on Election Day, bring approved form(s) of ID, such as FL driver's license, FL ID card, US Passport, Student ID, Public assistance ID.
- Remember your mask, and you can bring your sample ballot to make the process faster!
