3
Voting by mail-in ballot
After you apply, you’ll receive your mail-in ballot at the address you submitted. Inside, you should find:

- Your ballot.
- A small, white secrecy envelope to seal your ballot.
- A large “Voter Declaration” envelope for mailing your sealed ballot.
- A document that explains the questions on the ballot.
- Ballot instructions.

If you’re missing something, call your local county elections office.

If you don’t receive your mail-in ballot, check its status at pavoterservices.pa.gov or contact your local county elections office.
2 READ THE INSTRUCTIONS.

The instructions will be labeled “Instructions for voting by mail-in or absentee ballot.” They’ll remind you of the mail-in ballot deadline and explain how to complete your mail-in ballot.

3 FILL OUT YOUR BALLOT.

Your mail-in ballot may be one or two-sided depending on your county. You should only use blue or black pen ink to complete your ballot.

NOTE: If you make a mistake on your ballot, don’t cross out anything or make a note. Instead, call your local county elections office to request a replacement ballot.

You should complete your ballot in privacy, unless you’re receiving assistance.

Fill in the oval next to the candidate you want to vote for.

If you’d like to write in a candidate, fill in the oval next to “Write-in.” Then, write their name to the right of the oval.
Pay attention to how many votes you’re permitted to cast per category. For example, this illustration says “Vote for 1.”

If you vote for more than what’s asked of you, your vote won’t be counted.

If you decide to not vote for a candidate or ballot question, that’s okay. Your ballot will still be counted.

To vote “yes” on a ballot question, fill in the “yes” oval.

To vote “no” on a ballot question, fill in the “no” oval.

You can only vote “yes” or “no.”
PLACE YOUR BALLOT IN THE SMALLER SECRECY ENVELOPE.

1. Refold the ballot as it was sent to you.

2. Place it in the smaller envelope that’s labeled “Official Election Ballot.”

   Don’t put anything else inside or write on the envelope.

3. Wet the glue on the envelope fold.

4. Close the secrecy envelope to seal your ballot.

NOTE: Ballots returned without the secrecy envelope will not be counted.
PLACE YOUR SEALED BALLOT IN THE LARGER “VOTER DECLARATION” ENVELOPE.

5

Place your sealed ballot in the larger “Voter Declaration” envelope. Don’t put anything else inside.

6

Wet the glue on the envelope fold.

7

Close the mailing envelope to seal it.

8

Write your address in blue or black ink in the upper left corner of the envelope.
If you complete your ballot on your own:

Sign the left side of the envelope in the rectangle marked with an X and labeled “Voter.”

Write in the date when you completed your ballot, your name, and your address on the horizontal lines above the labels.

If someone completed your ballot for you:

Sign the right side of the envelope in the rectangle marked with an X and labeled “Voter.”

The person who assisted you should write the date when your ballot was completed. They should also enter their address and signature on the horizontal lines above the labels “Date” and “Witness.”
By mail

You can return your ballot by mail. The postage is prepaid. The last day to have your ballot postmarked is Election Day. If you plan to return your ballot by mail, please do so as early as possible.

In person

Most voters must return their own ballots. However, if you have a physical disability, you may choose someone to return your ballot for you.

Returning your own ballot

You can drop off your ballot at one of the following locations:

• Your main county election office.
• A satellite election office, if available.
• A drop-off box, if available.

You can find your ballot Dropbox at: vote.pa
Designating someone to return your ballot

If you’re physically unable to return your own ballot, you may choose another person (or “designated agent”) to drop it off. To do so, you must complete a designation and certification of agent form.

Your designated agent must return this form and your sealed ballot to the your county election office.

Current voting deadline

If you can’t turn in your mail-in ballot by the deadline, you can vote at your polling place on election day. To do this, you should bring your mail-in ballot and “Voter Declaration” envelope to the polling place so they can be voided by the Judge of Elections. If you can’t return your mail-in ballot and “Voter Declaration” envelope, you can still vote by provisional ballot.

Check the status of your mail-in ballot.

Once you submit your mail-in ballot, you can check its status by going to pavoterservices.pa.gov. You can also call the PA Department of State at 1-877-VOTESPA (1-877-868-3772).

If you provided an email address when you applied for your mail-in ballot, you should receive an email when your completed mail-in ballot is received.
